helpful hints

Due to heavy traffic, limited parking and security checks expected for the July 3 fireworks extravaganza, plan to carpool and arrive early. Continuous entertainment begins at 10 a.m. July 3. Wearing light colored clothing and carrying a small flashlight is recommended. No personal fireworks, barbecue grills or pets will be allowed at Mount Rushmore National Memorial during the event. Call (605) 574-2523 or visit www.nps.gov/moru for updates.

Mount Rushmore Visitor Facilities

All Facilities Are Accessible

Guide to Mount Rushmore

Make the Information Center your first stop. You will find an information desk, several special exhibits, audio tours and knowledgeable park staff to answer your questions. 8 a.m.-10 p.m.

The Grandview Terrace is the main viewing area for the Memorial. Elevators and staircases lead from the terrace to the Lincoln Borglum Museum and the park's amphitheater. The museum houses a bookstore, exhibits on the carving, the presidents, the sculptor, the workers and the history of the United States. Two 125-seat theaters show a short film about the Memorial. 8 a.m.-10 p.m.

Xanterra Parks and Resorts operates the Memorial's concessions, including a dining facility and gift shop. Here you will find fudge, ice cream, full meals and souvenirs. 8 a.m.-10:30 p.m. Concession stands throughout the Memorial grounds sell refreshments July 3.

The Sculptor's Studio displays tools and models used in the creation of Mount Rushmore and features a bookstore. Throughout the summer, rangers lead presentations on how the mountain was carved. 9 a.m.-6 p.m.

For a unique, close-up view of the four faces, take the Presidential Trail. It leads from the Grandview Terrace, along the base of the mountain, to the Sculptor's Studio. The trail is handicapped accessible to several viewing areas.
